Huntsman Cancer Foundation

Quick Facts

• Huntsman Cancer Foundation’s current priorities are to fund the construction of The Primary Children’s and Families’ Cancer Research Center at Huntsman Cancer Institute and to fund research by cancer types such as women’s cancers, brain cancers, lung cancers, gastrointestinal cancers, urologic cancers, blood cancers, sarcomas, etc. Donors may restrict donations to any area of cancer interest.

• All Huntsman Cancer Institute fundraising initiatives occur through Huntsman Cancer Foundation, which is a public, functionally-integrated, Type III 501(c)(3).

• Huntsman Cancer Institute was founded in 1995 with a $125 million gift from the Jon M. Huntsman family.

• In 1995, the Huntsman family founded Huntsman Cancer Foundation with its sole purpose to ensure the financial future of the research, education, and treatment programs at Huntsman Cancer Institute.

• Since 1995, the Jon M. Huntsman family has contributed approximately $400 million to the construction, maintenance, and operation of Huntsman Cancer Institute.

• The Jon M. Huntsman family and Huntsman Cancer Foundation have raised an additional $1 billion, for a total philanthropic investment in Huntsman Cancer Institute of $1.4 billion. More than 120,000 individuals, foundations, and corporations have supported Huntsman Cancer Institute.

• Huntsman Cancer Institute is part of the University of Utah and is not owned by the Huntsman family.

• In 2007, the Chronicle of Philanthropy placed Mr. Huntsman in the second place position on its list of largest donors. He has been motivated by his personal experience with cancer and his concern for the global human family.

• One family cannot do it alone. The Huntsman family has seeded Huntsman Cancer Institute. It is now up to the generosity of individuals, corporations, foundations, and community groups to sustain its lifesaving work.

• One hundred percent of all donations benefit Huntsman Cancer Institute. Through generous underwriting support by Jon and Karen Huntsman, no overhead is deducted from gifts.