Success Stories

Recently, a mom reported that the SafeUT app saved her twelve year old daughter's life. One Saturday night, her daughter began a chat with a clinician through the SafeUT app. The adolescent said she had overdosed on medication. The clinician gathered enough information from the chat to contact the girl's school and gather her home address and a phone number for her mother. SafeUT contacted her mother, law enforcement and EMS for support. EMS was sent to her home and she was transported to the hospital. Fortunately, she survived her suicide attempt and is currently in treatment.
